NELSON BUS SERVICE

WHEELCHAIR + PUSHCHAIR ACCESS

Buses on the routes between Nelson and Richmond will be wheelchair and pushchair accessible (except when vehicles are being serviced). Please signal the driver that you require assistance and an accessibility ramp will be lowered for your convenience. There is also a specific wheelchair space allocated on the bus. If you need to know whether a particular trip will have an accessible bus please contact the SBL office.

BIKES ON BUSES

You can bring your bike on the bus routes between Nelson and

Richmond for free by using the bike rack on the front of the bus. You will need to load and unload your bike, just signal the driver that you intend to use the rack. Instructions on how to use the rack are available on www.nbus.co.nz or collect an instruction pamphlet from the SBL office or the Nelson City Council Customer Service Centre.

FARES + TICKETS

Make savings on fares by purchasing a multi-trip ticket. Ask the driver or staff at the SBL office for details. Fare information is available in a separate pamphlet or at www.nbus.co.nz.

NBus service is provided by Nelson City Council and operated by SBL Group Ltd, 27 Bridge Street, Nelson. Phone 548 3290. Terms and conditions of carriage are available at www.nbus.co.nz

Effective from 10 April 2012. No service operates on Public Holidays. Times in bold are the best connections with the local routes.
